

HOW TO GET ALCALÁ DE HENARES

From Madrid Airport

By Taxi

- From the Airport, take a taxi to Alcalá de Henares. The ride takes about 20 minutes and costs approximately 35.00 €

By Train

- Go to the subway station located in terminal 2 and terminal 4 and take the subway, line 8 (pink), to the “Nuevos Ministerios” subway station. Once you arrive to “Nuevos Ministerios” subway station, follow the signs to “Tren de Cercanías”. When have purchased your ticket, look for the platform for C-1/C-7 trains, which has its final destination in Alcalá de Henares, or the C-2 train with its final destination Guadalajara, although you have to get off in Alcalá de Henares.

The trip from Madrid Airport to Alcalá de Henares train station takes about 1 hour and 30 minutes, and it costs 3.10 €

By Bus

- Take bus N° 101 from the Airport/Canillejas and get off at the last stop. The ride takes about 15 minutes. Then you will have to cross the road and take the bus N° 223 (ALSA Auto) that will take you to Alcalá de Henares. You must get off at the last stop. This ride takes about 25 minutes. The cost of both tickets is 3,09 €

From downtown Madrid

By car:

- Take the highway A-2, exit 23 to Alcalá de Henares (West). The ride takes around 30 minutes.

By train:

- From Chamartín, Nuevos Ministerios, Recoletos and Atocha railway station, take the “Tren de Cercanías”. Once you have purchased your ticket, find the platform for C-1/C-7 trains which have their final destination in Alcalá de Henares, or C-2 train with its final destination in Guadalajara. You must get off in Alcalá de Henares.

The trip from downtown Madrid to Alcalá de Henares train station takes about 50 minutes, and it costs 2.10 €

By Bus

- Madrid is well connected to Alcalá de Henares through the Intercambiador Avenida de América (Subway station Avenida de América). Once there, take the bus N° 223 (ALSA Auto), which departs to Alcalá de Henares every 10-15 minutes. The ride takes 40-45 minutes. It costs 3.00 €