PARADOR OF ALCALÁ DE HENARES ****

This newly opened hotel is located in the centre of Alcalá de Henares. It is housed in a magnificent seventeenth-century building, the former Santo Tomás Dominican Convent and School. It is one of the city's landmarks along with Hostería del Estudiante, in the former Minor School of San Jerónimo, founded by Cardinal Cisneros in 1510 and overlooking the beautiful Patio Trilingüe at the University of Alcalá de Henares.

These monuments form a complex that was designated by UNESCO as a World Heritage site. Around the cloisters at the Santo Tomás School-Convent there are the restaurant, the bar, the breakfast room, the guests' lounge, and the night bar.

The Parador has restaurant, bar, breakfast room, guests' lounge, night bar, parking and a swimming pool, which is open only in the summer. In addition, the hotel boasts twelve rooms available for conferences, meetings, and other events.
